

JOB DESCRIPTION

POST TITLE: Apprenticeships and Early Careers Partner
GRADE: 10
DEPARTMENT: HR and Organisational Development
REPORTS TO: Apprenticeships and Early Careers Manager

PURPOSE OF THE JOB

- To manage the design and delivery of apprenticeship and early careers programmes, ensuring they effectively support the council's goal of developing and maintaining a highly-skilled, resilient workforce
- To provide specialist expertise, advice and guidance on apprenticeship and early careers programmes, promoting their role in addressing skills gaps, improving workforce diversity, and enabling people of all backgrounds to develop successful careers
- To work collaboratively with HR colleagues, including colleagues in the resourcing team, to promote the council's employer brand and attract the very best early careers talent
- To manage the design and delivery of a holistic offer to all participants on apprenticeship and early careers programmes, including pastoral, learning and peer-to-peer support, to ensure that all learners can achieve their full potential

PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTABILITIES

1. To manage the planning, procurement, and delivery of apprenticeship and early careers programmes, including work experience, internships and graduate schemes
2. To develop and co-ordinate the delivery of an annual plan for the recruitment of interns, apprentices and graduates aligned to business needs including relevant workforce strategies and plans
3. To work collaboratively with colleagues in the resourcing team to develop creative ways to enhance and promote the council's employer brand and build the council's reputation as a destination employer
4. To develop and maintain relationships with local schools, colleges and universities, attending careers fairs and other similar events as required

5. To design, develop and implement approaches to recruitment and selection that are transparent, fair and engaging, and enable the identification of the very best early careers talent
6. To co-ordinate the onboarding and induction of participants on apprenticeship and early careers programmes
7. To monitor and report on the diversity of participants on apprenticeship and early careers programmes, and manage the development and co-ordination of action plans to address any concerns
8. To identify and select appropriate training providers to deliver the council's apprenticeship and early careers programmes, ensuring full compliance with the council's procurement policies and processes
9. To proactively monitor and challenge the performance of training providers by analysing management information, engaging with learners and line managers, and implementing a robust contract management strategy
10. To ensure participants on apprenticeship and early careers programmes benefit from pastoral, learning and peer-to-peer support, including coaching, mentoring and career advice
11. To evaluate the delivery and impact of apprenticeship and early careers programmes, and manage the development and co-ordination of action plans to address opportunities for improvement
12. To line manage apprentices, interns and other colleagues who may be directly assigned to the postholder from time to time
13. To champion and proactively support the implementation of the council's vision to be an ever more inclusive, anti-racist organisation
14. To model the behaviours required of all staff and demonstrate commitment to the council's values
15. To ensure that all duties and responsibilities are discharged in accordance with the council's policies and procedures, and any relevant legislation and regulation

JOB CONTEXT

Organisational context

The postholder will work collaboratively with peers, managers and partners to ensure the council can attract, develop and retain the early careers talent required to develop and maintain a highly-skilled, resilient workforce.
